NATIVE COCKTAILS

NATIVE OUR STORIES

A collaborative menu, carefully curated by The Sugar Club team, it's our journey on what New Zealand means to us. "Native" pulls together stories and experiences that shape how we think, how we treat and indeed, how we portray New Zealand. Nature is executed with respect and thought towards how we can savour our Land to the best of our ability. We will be delighted to share with you the wider narrative behind each of our creations.

Please enjoy our liquid portrayal of New Zealand

COASTAL

The Kiwi summer playground, this section plays to the more remote parts of our coasts, from flora and fauna to personal journeys. We look to showcase a taste of our rich childhood that we often take a little too for granted

BANKS BAY

(Green, Lush, Refreshing)

Banks bay pays tribute to the first sightings of New Zealand and its rich coastal flora. Joseph Banks was to be the first botanist to document our native plant life and, like the local Māori, was intrigued by the many uses of harakeke flax. Banks bay uses native flax as the heart to help us further understand why the harakeke is often known as the base of Māori cuisine and medicine.

Tanqueray gin - harakeke cordial - lemon - apricot - mint - chickpea brine

20

PACIFISTA

(Bountiful, Crunchy, Cheerful)

The Pacifista is inspired by some of the main produce you can get in Mei's homeland, Vietnam. With the combination of coconut, mango and the warm kick of dark rum, this is the typical cocktail you would like to have laying on a beautiful white sandy beach. It incarnates the idea of a perfect holiday.

Plantation Barbados 5 year dark rum - mango - coconut milk - caramel/chestnut coulis

20

LOST RUBY

(Luxurious, Rich, Lustful)

This cocktail is a play on one of the most popular cocktail during Prohibition era in the US, the New York Sour. We revisited it our way by shifting the flavour profile towards a beautiful combination to pair the Irish whiskey with cocoa and mint. The presentation is made luxurious by the addition of red wine caviar.

Teeling small batch Irish whiskey - cocoa cordial - mint - lemon - chickpea brine - edible rubies

PASTURE

Fresh, wild and green, we focus on the nectar and bounty we pull from our surroundings, how we interact with them and what keeps them alive.

BLOOD OF THE GRAOULLY

(Chubby, Vibrant & Fiery)

The Graouilly is the pagan mythical dragon of Metz. He was known for punishing naughty children and labelled as an all-round bad dragon. We wanted to paint him in a different light: the blood of the Graouilly mixes the idea of his fiery nature, with his slightly sweeter side. After much research we found out he was a sucker for anything to do with plums, we put this alongside some indigenous horopito for fire and shazam.

Wyborowa Rye vodka- dark plum puree - horopito - lemon - chickpea brine

20

GARDEN PARTY

(Zesty, Fragrant, Fresh)

Garden party derives from the vast variety of produce and herbs that grew in her nana's garden when she arrived in New Zealand. A drink her nana prepared which was fresh and lively. We wanted to recreate this experience so it could be enjoyed over and over.

Jose Cuervo Silver Tradicional tequila - pomelo-thai basil cordial - grapefruit soda

PLATEAU

We are surrounded by 53 volcanic cones in Auckland, in this section we pay homage to them with situations built on our personal experiences, history and native myths.

AORAKI

(Clean, Refined, Elegant)

Based on the Arowhenua tribe story, Aoraki follows the conversion of man to mountain. We take botanicals from the local Tekapo basin, spirit from Central Otago and a chilling menthol to represent the cold blast of altitude, recognising the pure beauty of the region and the beliefs behind its creation.

Tanqueray gin - Misha limelight riesling - honey passion fruit cordial - menthol

THAI BASIL CHILI NEGRONI

(Spicy, Herbal, Bitter)

When East meets West ... This is a story of blending hundreds of years of culture in one drink. Since the beginning of humanity people have travelled bringing their own traditions with them and learning new ones in each place they have been. We want to celebrate the melting pot of culture we are lucky to have in Aotearoa adding thai basil and chilli to an old-world iconic concoction invented by Camillo Negroni in Florence in 1919.

Tanqueray gin - Lustau sweet vermouth - Campari - thai basil - red chili

ROOTS

Spurred by the starting point of all life, we take an in-depth look into how we portray our roots, what they mean to us and their importance in our culture.

HĀNGĪ PIT

(Spicy, Full, Delicate)

This cocktail captures the smoke, char and earthiness that is definitely Hāngī. We looked to recreate the traditional technique in liquid form using a balance of elements such as dry habanero, tequila and charred cob syrup.

Habanero tequila - agave nectar - lime - saline - mezcal mist

FAIRY TALE

(Bright, Silky, Pink)

The idea comes from Danni's childhood, when she used to pick blackberries with her grandma in her garden. Travelling she discovered how coconut can make amazing diverse flavours. Merging her origins with the experience around the world resulted in a magic potion that is Fairy Tale.

Stolichnaya premium vodka - violette liqueur - coconut milk - blackberry

KAMOTE

(Fresh, Tropical, Rich)

The Kamote tells a tale of Maria's family and their tradition, we take on the idea of the childhood favourite "Halo-halo" from the Philippines and transform it into a unique pacific potion with championing flavours of humble kumara.

Coconut rum - kumara coulis - Peychaud bitters - lemon - pineapple juice
