BY THE GLASS

Here at The Grill, we pride ourselves on our extensive and comprehensive list of wines from around the world. Below, we have a hand-picked glass pour which isn't regularly available by the glass, using our Coravin Wine Access System, we can offer spectacular expressions of New Zealand wines to you.

Each of these wines will tell a story of growing, picking, fermenting and aging.

Chardonnay

Glass

2013 Church Road TOM, Hawke's Bay

$70

Produced only in outstanding vintages, TOM wines are of the most exceptional character and quality. Wearing the TOM label is tribute to one of New Zealand's great winemaking legends.

Delectable hints of citrus, white peach and fresh fig with a savoury complexity including toasted hazelnut, cashew, brioche and driftwood smoke.

Pinot Noir

Glass

2018 Dry River, Martinborough

$48.5

Martinborough is one of the most marvelous destinations for New Zealand Pinot Noir. With classical style comprising of savory, herbaceous and spicy aromas make its own way, far away from Central Otago.

Dry River is one of the pioneering wineries of New Zealand – established in 1979 – mastering Pinot Noir

Syrah

Glass

2014 Church Road TOM, Hawke's Bay

$85.5

Further expressing the exceptional quality of Church Road wines, the first release of Syrah bearing the TOM label.

Layers of dark berry, cherries, violet perfume, cacao, vanilla and underlying earthiness give this wine elegance and a plushness of texture. Silky tannins draw the wine across the back palate and lend great length to the finish. Perfectly matched with game or red meat dishes.

"Men are like wine – some turn to vinegar, but the best improve with age."
